

CCG Catalyst – CORPORATE OVERVIEW

CCG Catalyst is a leading management consulting firm connecting bank strategy to innovation, transformation, and disruption. We advise our clients on the direction of banking, strategy development and managing disruption related to execution of tactics. CCG Catalyst leverages decades of deep industry experience to provide practical business strategies and organization, analytics, and technology consulting for our clients.

We are a team delivering you competence based upon proven experience in Strategy development as related to business, product, service and market.

Our Payment practice develops strategy related to emerging payments, as well as cards, mobile and digital transformation. For our Organizational practice, we advise our clients on restructuring, improving financial performance, implement best practices processes and Optimization as related to delivery model, people, processes and systems.

On Technology we conduct planning, establish governance, evaluations, negotiations and implementations. The M&A practice of the firm develops strategies with our clients to improve their chances of success through an integrated approach that links acquisition strategy, diligence and merger integration. From a Risk & Regulatory Compliance we advise our clients on regulation and the associated complexity of staying in compliance.

For more information visit <https://www.ccg-catalyst.com/>